

FOR SHARP TRADERS.

A Chance to Make a Good Swap and $20 to Boot.

The EVENING WORLD will give to the man or woman, boy or girl, who makes the best trade through our Exchange Advertisements during the month of January and February a Gold Double Eagle.

You must first advertise in THE EVENING WORLD, then by means of this advertisement make your exchange; then write in not over 150 words a history of the transaction and send it to "Exchange Editor," EVENING WORLD. These accounts will be published and a Committee appointed.

The Exchange Advertisements of "The Evening World" offer great opportunity to those who wish to exchange Real Estate, Horses, Carriages, Jewelry, Books, Stationery, Collectibles, Typewriters, Guns, Clothing, &c. The rate is but 50 cents for three lines.

EXCHANGE ADV.
3 LINES 50 CENTS

CENTREBOARD SHARPE, cat-rigged, 15 ft. long, in good order, nearly new, was sold for light boat. A. K. R. World Office.

FOR the best cash offer, R. C. cabin soap, 20 lb. box, 13 ft. long, with soap and rigging complete, somewhat out of repair. Address W. H. 75 Jefferson st., Philadelphia, Pa.

I HAVE a novelty business, but have no time to push it, one good 25-cent novelty, also two 10-cent novelties, one mounted on Broadway, cost only $12 a month; 100 per cent profit; to a young man who has time and just made a slight change value at $100; will exchange for building lot or better. Address Novelty, World Office.

I WILL EXCHANGE a mechanical organ, almost new, cost $100, for a good typewriter or a good piano. Address Novelty, World Office.

I WILL EXCHANGE a brand-new Remington repeating rifle for $50. Arthur Savage, Bay Ridge, N. Y.

I ADVISE from Paris Exposition has pencil with view of Eiffel Tower, watch chain and other Paris 1889 items of Exposition; send offer. Paris 1889 items.

LOTS in Brooklyn wanted in trade for small boats. House, 100 York street, New York.

MAKES OFFERS for new Hall typewriter; perfect type, two sets type; implements. Can see City Hall; have you wheel or cash? Hall, 28 World.

FOUR-SEATED ROCKAWAY and professional magic lantern for furnished apartments that can be used in a narrow street. Address Pavilion, 50 World, Brooklyn.

SEVEN-SEATED ROCKAWAY, brand-new watch, gold, diamond-set, 18 rubies, chronograph; for good building lot. Corbett, 208 World, up to 100 ft. high.

SUBURBAN LOTS to trade for Brooklyn house. Suburban, 14 Brooklyn World Office.

THE COCKTAILS for sale, 7 candy machines, 1 counter, 3 wash cases and piano bench, for merchandise. 144 Hudson st.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch, a sailing boat that can be used in a narrow street, for a house that can be used in a narrow street. Address S. C. World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

WILL EXCHANGE a diamond watch and cash for a new or nearly full hall-bearing sailing boat. A. K. R. 27 World Office.

IN THE DRAMATIC WORLD.

Manola Enraged at Being Enjoined from the "Gondoliers."

Why Mrs. Snell-McCrea-Green Did Not Go on the Stage.

Little Miss Marion Manola, daintily clad in a pretty French-colored dress, which fitted her faultlessly and was just long enough—or short enough—to reveal a tiny foot in a French shoe, yesterday in the office of B. D. Stevens, yesterday. She was perturbed.

"I am furious and foaming," she said, "at the way my case with McCrea has turned out. No, I don't mind the injunction restraining me from singing in the 'Gondoliers.' I expected that. But I do object to being misrepresented. As I said before, I am furious and foaming."

Little Mr. Stevens laughed and tried to console Miss Manola, but without any success.

"The letters I wrote to McCrea," she went on, "in reference to next season were actually composed as referring to this season. I am placed in a false light and I really don't know what to do."

"Let's put up a job, Manola," suggested sunny Stevens, brightly.

"I'll do anything on earth," she said, "but I won't go back to Cottrill. That woman! I tremble when I think of her. When I heard her affidavit read I could only open my mouth in surprise. I literally couldn't speak. New York doesn't need enough money to go back to her. She never liked me any more, and this suit is a woman's spite."

Then Miss Manola, with the beautiful logic of her new dress, went on to recognize such a being as Miss Cottrill, though for half an hour she had been vigorously proving the recognition.

"If Mr. McCrea himself were well," she said, "and could manage his own company, I'd go back. He was always very nice and kind to me, and I owe him some gratitude, but that Cottrill!"

"Never mind, Manola," remarked Stevens soothingly. "I will avenge your wrongs. I'll offer her $100 per week for the woman in the De Wolf Hopper company."

"Oh, thanks, if you only would!" exclaimed Miss Manola fervently.

"I shall endeavor to do so," he said. "I'll sooner be sent to Ludlow Street Jail for six months. Imprisonment has no terrors for me. They can lock me up if they like."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

"Don't think I mind this 'Gondoliers' business," she resumed. "I don't. That engagement was only for six weeks. Stevens offered me great financial inducements. He thought it would be better to do nothing, but I originally intended to come to New York and rest. I wish I had done so."

Miss Manola was becoming intensely dramatic. Bernard couldn't have uttered the last words more effectively.

BRING HIM TO JUSTICE.

Margaret Orme's Murderer Must Be Found by To-Morrow.

Last Opportunity for Detectives to Win the Gold Double Eagle.

After 12 o'clock noon to-morrow, no solution of the London Murder Mystery, received at THE EVENING WORLD office, will be allowed to compete for the prize.

Answers must not exceed 300 words and must comply with the following conditions: First—Who committed the crime? Second—What was the motive? Third—By what evidence was the criminal convicted?

It is not compulsory to regard the sworn evidence at the inquest as true. Competitors are at liberty to draw any inference of facts they please from the statements of persons concerned.

Answers should be addressed: "Murder Mystery Solution," A gold double eagle is the prize offered for the best solution.

SYNOPSIS OF "A LONDON MYSTERY."

William Benson, a poor workman living in one of the slums of London, is awakened one night by a sound which he takes to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

The policeman finds the man dead, and Benson is taken to the police station. Benson is questioned and he tells the story of what happened.

Benson's story is that he was awakened by a sound which he took to be a burglar. He goes to the door and finds a man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He calls for help and a policeman is sent for.

THE WORLD: FRIDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 14, 1890.

A Good Team Will Be Put in the Field This Year.

Will Pat Sheedy Become Sullivan's Manager Again?

The determination of Columbia College to put a baseball nine in the field this season has stirred up considerable enthusiasm among the students, and there is already a large list of candidates. Columbia, when in the College League, did fairly well.

One year, when the College was not in the League, its baseball nine beat every amateur nine it met with ease. The following year it joined the College League again and finished last, having lost its phenomenal battery of the previous year.

The great disadvantage the boys have under is the lack of ground. They are forced to get their practice in a hazardous sort of a way, wherever they can, and fairly well.

Admirers of John L. Sullivan are noting with a great degree of interest the remarks of clever John Sheedy, the champion in his theatrical engagements. They say he seems as light and active on the stage as he is in the ring, and it is not like the big fellow prize the good form he keeps himself in.

It is town talk, by the way, that Sullivan is anxious to have Pat Sheedy, his former manager, act again in the same capacity. Sheedy says he has never lost his good opinion of Sullivan, even when he was a champion, and he would be glad to manage Sullivan as he is in the days of yore.

The big billiard tournament commences at Chickering Hall Feb. 18. Now that it is known that Jake Schaefer and George Slosson are to meet in the contest, interest in the event is greatly intensified. The opening night will be a ladies' night.

The National Athletic Club, of Brooklyn, is looking for a day to-morrow to hold a number of boxing matches at their club-house. The membership of the Club, by the way, now amounts to about five hundred. Boxing will be made a feature of the evening's entertainment.

Walter Stimpson, President of the New England Amateur Rowing Association, has written Richard K. Fox, thinking him to be a good fellow, and asking him to indicate single-scul champion-ship.

Jack McAuliffe writes to friends in this city that he was never in better physical condition than at present. He says he anticipates a victory over Jimmy Carroll. Billy Madden, Jack's manager, also writes enthusiastically concerning the champion's prospects of a brilliant triumph. Both Madden and McAuliffe have had a good flatterer's attention on the Pacific slope.

The trial of Champion Amateur Middleweight Boxer Pat Cahill, was continued last night. A number of Cahill's friends were summoned to appear, but those who were present were lost to any thing. It looks as though Cahill might be given a reprieve.

The Manhattan Athletic Club has decided to hold a number of boxing matches this Spring at their club-house. The first will probably be between Mike Bent and William Horrocks.

Anything you want to know answered at a price of "The World's" Answer. Ask a question and look for the answer.

Having completed stock-taking we have selected all broken lots, together with all shop-soiled and custom shoes, and marked them down from one-third to one-half regular prices to close out. Many styles to the celebrated

BURT'S SHOES

ARE INCLUDED. AS WE KEEP ONLY STANDARD MAKES, ANY AND EVERY SELECTION MADE FROM THIS OFFER WILL BE A SPLENDID INVESTMENT. IN FACT, NO SUCH OPPORTUNITY TO BUY RELIABLE FOOTWEAR FOR MEN, LADIES, MISSES AND CHILDREN WILL BE PRESENTED AGAIN THIS SEASON.

SALE OF BURT'S SHOES

361 Sixth Ave. 361 271 Grand St. 271

Between 22d and 23d Sts.

Corner Fourth St.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE NINE.

A Good Team Will Be Put in the Field This Year.

Will Pat Sheedy Become Sullivan's Manager Again?

The determination of Columbia College to put a baseball nine in the field this season has stirred up considerable enthusiasm among the students, and there is already a large list of candidates. Columbia, when in the College League, did fairly well.

One year, when the College was not in the League, its baseball nine beat every amateur nine it met with ease. The following year it joined the College League again and finished last, having lost its phenomenal battery of the previous year.

The great disadvantage the boys have under is the lack of ground. They are forced to get their practice in a hazardous sort of a way, wherever they can, and fairly well.

Admirers of John L. Sullivan are noting with a great degree of interest the remarks of clever John Sheedy, the champion in his theatrical engagements. They say he seems as light and active on the stage as he is in the ring, and it is not like the big fellow prize the good form he keeps himself in.

It is town talk, by the way, that Sullivan is anxious to have Pat Sheedy, his former manager, act again in the same capacity. Sheedy says he has never lost his good opinion of Sullivan, even when he was a champion, and he would be glad to manage Sullivan as he is in the days of yore.

The big billiard tournament commences at Chickering Hall Feb. 18. Now that it is known that Jake Schaefer and George Slosson are to meet in the contest, interest in the event is greatly intensified. The opening night will be a ladies' night.

The National Athletic Club, of Brooklyn, is looking for a day to-morrow to hold a number of boxing matches at their club-house. The membership of the Club, by the way, now amounts to about five hundred. Boxing will be made a feature of the evening's entertainment.

Walter Stimpson, President of the New England Amateur Rowing Association, has written Richard K. Fox, thinking him to be a good fellow, and asking him to indicate single-scul champion-ship.

Jack McAuliffe writes to friends in this city that he was never in better physical condition than at present. He says he anticipates a victory over Jimmy Carroll. Billy Madden, Jack's manager, also writes enthusiastically concerning the champion's prospects of a brilliant triumph. Both Madden and McAuliffe have had a good flatterer's attention on the Pacific slope.

The trial of Champion Amateur Middleweight Boxer Pat Cahill, was continued last night. A number of Cahill's friends were summoned to appear, but those who were present were lost to any thing. It looks as though Cahill might be given a reprieve.

The Manhattan Athletic Club has decided to hold a number of boxing matches this Spring at their club-house. The first will probably be between Mike Bent and William Horrocks.

Anything you want to know answered at a price of "The World's" Answer. Ask a question and look for the answer.

Having completed stock-taking we have selected all broken lots, together with all shop-soiled and custom shoes, and marked them down from one-third to one-half regular prices to close out. Many styles to the celebrated

BURT'S SHOES

ARE INCLUDED. AS WE KEEP ONLY STANDARD MAKES, ANY AND EVERY SELECTION MADE FROM THIS OFFER WILL BE A SPLENDID INVESTMENT. IN FACT, NO SUCH OPPORTUNITY TO BUY RELIABLE FOOTWEAR FOR MEN, LADIES, MISSES AND CHILDREN WILL BE PRESENTED AGAIN THIS SEASON.

SALE OF BURT'S SHOES

361 Sixth Ave. 361 271 Grand St. 271

Between 22d and 23d Sts.

Corner Fourth St.

PATERSON'S PRIZE NEWSBOYS.

Winners in the Contest for Selling the Most "Evening World's."

The newsboys of Paterson, N. J., have had a hot competition during the past month as to which of them should carry off four prizes offered by THE EVENING WORLD to the boys selling the largest number of copies of THE EVENING WORLD from Jan. 9

Correct in Theory.